Dear Mrs Casey

I am writing to notify you that your organisation's name has been updated on the Register of Environmental Organisations (REO). Enclosed is a revised certificate of entry that advises that your organisation has been entered on the Register and has tax deductibility status from the date of entry.

I would like to remind you that your organisation is required to abide by the Guidelines to the Register in order to maintain its deductible gift recipient (DGR) status. A requirement of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth) (Income Tax Act) is that your listed organisation must, at the end of every financial year, submit to the Commonwealth department responsible for the environment a statistical return form and an audited annual financial statement.

Upcoming Requirements and Timelines

Further to our recent letters to you, please don't forget to submit the required documentation to us by the following dates:

- The overseas activities survey is required by 30 August 2012; and
- Your Annual Statistical Return for 2011-12 is due to the department by 31 October 2012.

Any queries on the listing of your organisation or on the requirements of the REO can be directed to:

Congratulations

on your entry

to the Register of Environmental Organisations

Enclosed is a certificate of entry that advises that your organisation has been entered on the Register and has tax deductibility status from the date of entry.

The Australian Taxation Office will notify you in due course that you have deductible gift recipient status.

Now that you have been entered on the Register, you are requested to abide by the requirements of the Guidelines to the Register in order to maintain your deductible gift recipient status.

A requirement of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 is that registered organisations must, at the end of every financial year, submit to the Commonwealth Department responsible for the environment a statistical return form and an audited annual financial statement. A form for the 2006/2007 financial year will be available on the web from 30 June 2007 at: www.deh.gov.au/tax/reo.
